Wagner's Promise to Strengthen the Senators Unfulfilled.

When Gus Schmelz resigned as manager control. His managerial success was ephemeral. When the Statesmen went on the road they began to loss, and their number of won games since June 26 is three. Tom Brown was expected to lift an eleventh-place club to somewhere in a respectable standing among clubs who are composed of ball players, but the task was

The game at Pittsburg yesterday was at evidence of Brown's instillity to get blood out of a turnip, and the absence of new aces on the team is conclusive proof that Mr. Wagner is making haste slowly in the way of attempting to strengthen his team. The Senatorial magnate does not seem to care whether his team wins games or not, but if he could hear the murnur of dis stisfaction along the fine he would dir bimself and pet two excellent outfielders BALTIMORE, five errors, these were not alone respon-sible for defeat, the Colts winning by then make the other men play up-to-date ball, at least, if they are capable of it at the present time

It is a good thing that St. Louis is so low down in percentage, as it is impossible for them to get within speaking distance of the Statesmen. The fans in Washington are all waiting for the first evidence of strengthening. It ought to come quick. Eastern League Games.

Jockey Club Stewards Exonerate

the In-and-Duter's Owners. New York, July 13 -- A meeting of the stewards of the Jockey Club was held at the Brighton Beach race course this afternoon. There were present August Belgant J. H. Bradford, James R. Keene, F. R. Hitchcock and Andrew Miller. The follow ing decision was rendered in The Friar case

The stewards of the Coney Island Jockey Club having presented to the stewards of the Jockey Club the result of their investi gation of the races run by The Friar in his three races at that meeting, and the stew ards of the Jockey Chib having teard th owner, trainer and lockey, respectively of the same, and being satisfied from the evidence that the owner, trainer and lockey are not in the habit of betting, fail to find a motive for the inconsistent running of this horse. The stewards further find for evidence of the trainer, and other evidence satisfactory to them, that the horse beddicate and of a nervous disposition, capable of great performances at times and
